New Study Asked On Hiway Lateral

Issue Passed By 3-2 Vote After Hot Debate

To the clammer, applause and mixed reaction of one of the largest audiences on record, the City Council Monday night approved by a slim 3-to-2 margin a resolution asking the state to reconsider a shift in the location of the proposed east-west freeway lateral to territory lying outside the city limits.

The two dissenting votes in the hotly debated issue came from Mayor Francis Pacelli and Councilman Micheal DeBernardi, both of whom felt that more study should be made of the available facts before any conclusive action is taken.

Councilmen Edward J. Dennis and Joseph Verducci, spurred on by Councilman Robert St. Clair's aggressive arguments in favor of his own resolution, joined with him in pushing the document through.

From the outset when Mayor Pacelli put aside the regular agenda to hear and discuss St. Clair's resolution, high voltage sparks began to fly.

First objection was lodged by Chester W. Lebsack, attorney for the Henry Doelger Co., a building firm which stands to be affected by the eventual location of the freeway lateral.

"Your action tonight is premature and fraught with danger," Lebsack declared. "If they (State Division of Highways) consider a change in route, new hearings will be necessary by law. And you are talking about a $2,300,000 change tonight. This would mean that they would have to reconsider all routes ever considered in previous hearings. You would open up a complete rehash of the entire freeway problem."

Injecting the problem of his client, Lebsack said that the Doelger Co. employs some 150 persons who live in Daly City whose incomes would be affected by another change in the lateral route. This in turn would affect the economic interests of the city, he added. He said that a matter of 2,000 proposed new homes has been "upset because of the uncertainty created." Lebsack stepped down to thundering applause.

Next up for battle was Edward O'Donnell, Westlake homeowner, who concurred with Lebsack that any tampering with route proposals at this stage would provoke a total reopening of the touchy issue.

"If the state wants a modification, let the state come to the council, but don't put through a wishy-washy move like this," he said, referring to the resolution. "No resolution is the best resolution in this instance. Let the Highway Commission come to you."

Edith Lebine, 30 Woodland Ave., Westlake Knolls, protested the references to the names of Doelger and McKeon (a second building firm involved).

"Why these names?" she asked. "I though we were talking about a state freeway?"

Robert J. Carberry, 158 Westbrook, argued that a postponement would push the southerly route "clear to San Jose. •You have to make up your minds now."

It was at this point that St. Clair went into high gear.

"Why did this council originally adopt Route B?" he asked. "We did so because we were led to believe that any other route was engineeringly unfeasible. Now we find out from the local highway people that modified Route A is not only feasible but would bring better service, annual savings, etc. I say that if there is to be a fight, we as councilmen should lead it, not let the Highway Commission lead it for us. We alone must decide what's best for Daly City."

St. Clair then added, "In fact, the Highway Commission asked us not to sign any agreement until they could further investigate the new route."

O'Donnell returned to the fray, warning that if the council persisted in seeking a reinvestigation of the routing, there will be "much unpleasantness ahead." He referred to bitter disagreements which arisen during previous hearings on the proposed freeway route.

Councilman Verducci rejected a proposal by Mayor Pacelli to specify that the resolution was neither a revocation or endorsement of a new route nor a bid

Cost Of Living Survey Is Now Underway In DC

The Bureau of Labor Statistics is presently conducting a survey in Daly City in connection with the revision of the consumer price index (cost of living index), according to a letter received by the Daly City Police Department.

The survey will involve obtaining information on income and expenditures from families in all sections of the city for purposes of a possible revision of the national index, the letter said.

It asked the local police to confirm the nature of the study in case of inquiries from citizens who are to be approached on a door-to-door basis.

Local citizens involved in the survey were named by the letter as follows.

Juana M. Brinkworth, Sheila L. Feiger, Margaret E. Foster, Jane Gwin, Anne N. Kaspar, Anna B. Palacios, Gene S. Poschman, Vella H. Schmid, Elizabeth M. Shiver and Doris A. Van Dyke.

The letter said the survey, launched recently, will continue for the next two to three months.

Trustees Approve High School Plans

Preliminary plans for construction of 36 classroom units for the new building at Jefferson High School, amounting to a cost of $1,700,000 was approved Monday night by the Board of Trustees.

The plans, as submitted by Falk & Booth, San Francisco architects, calls for the construction of 23 classrooms, five science labs, three business education rooms, two industrial arts rooms, one are and one crafts room, one music room, one library and administrative office, and a photo journalism room. The new plant is expected to house approximately 1,500 students. Construction is scheduled to begin in September.

The new building is scheduled to be built behind the present one, and eventually the present building will be torn down and a new building will be erected in its place for an additional 500 students for a total accommodation of 2,000.

Falk and Booth will now go ahead with the final plan, while the district will now go to the Allocations Board of the Department of Finance in Sacramento for approval of the money. The State Department of Education has already given approval of the project.

Dist. Supt. Edward Morgan announced that the State Department of Education has approved construction of 16 classroom additions at Westmoor High School at a cost of $598,071.

These new additions consist of five science labs, two shops, and a mechanical drawing room, and eight classrooms. The district is scheduled to go before the Allocations Board in March for approval of money.

Morgan announced that final approval has come from the State Department of Education on renovation of the gymnasium at Jefferson High School at a cost of $400,000. The district will go before the Allocation Board for approval of money on March 14.

Mario Ciampi, San Francisco architect is preparing the plans.

Manager, Engineer Hit Citizen Protests

Four protests were heard during Monday night's City Council meeting in addition to those lodged against the freeway lateral proposal, three by Julius Castelan and one by Mr. Hamilton of 148 Bethlar, who failed to give the city clerk his full name.

Castelan, who formerly did engineering work for the city, argued that almost nothing has been done to improve the streets of the older portion of Daly City.

City Engineer Bill Chapman was then instructed to cite at least a dozen examples of recent street improvement, all of which took place in the eastern part of town.

"I can show you streets you haven't touched in 20 years," Castelan said.

"This may be true, Mr. Castelan," answered Mayor Frank Pacelli, "but your statement that we haven't done anything for old Daly City just doesn't hold true."

Castelan also pointed out that while the unemployment percentage in San Francisco is 6.5 per cent and in San Bruno it is 7.5 per cent, in Daly City it has reached an index of 8.5 per cent.

Pointing out that the federal government has defined any index over 7 per cent as "pretty bad," he added that what the city needs is "to secure a major project which will bring in government money."

He also pointed out that while the government is now spending money on "homes for the oldsters" none of it is being sought for Daly City.

"This needs investigation," he said, "because we have many oldsters in this city who need proper housing and care."

Mayor Pacelli asked City Manager Ed Frank to investigate these two matters and report on them within the week.

Hamilton, who lives just outside the city limits, was objecting to the recent 100 per cent increase in water rates to users who are not city residents.

He said he felt that because he spent his entire income with-

New Shopping Center To Open Soon In Colma

Electronic sales analysis, a new concept in merchandising, will be installed in the Alec Membership Shopping Center now under construction in Colma.

Alec G. Land, president and general manager of the venture, the first of its kind in northern California, said the four million dollar enterprise would be pushed through construction and ready to open during early May of this year.

Built on a six acre tract just off the intersection of Junipero Serra and Eastmoor drive, the Alec Membership Shopping Center will be complete, with a super market, bakery, pharmacy, alongs with other departments, Land said.

The Conti Estates Inc., Colma, has leased the land and will build the shopping center for Land, the deal extending over a long term period. The new enterprise is across the street from the new Serra Bowl, a large bowling alley now nearing completion.

The parking area surrounding the Land Membership Shopping Center will accommodate 1,000 automobiles.

San Bruno Girl Felled By Brain Tumor

Word reached Daly City late yesterday that a young San Bruno woman was near death in Tokyo following an emergency operation for a brain tumor which felled her late last week aboard the S.S. Hope, a mercy ship upon which she has been serving for some time.

Lois Boyce, whose San Bruno address was 1960 Earl avenue, became ill while the ship lay at anchor in Indonesian waters. She had been a lab technician at the University of California before volunteering for duty aboard the Hope.

Through a series of emergency calls directed through Washington, Miss Boyce was eventually flown several thousand miles to a U. S. hospital near Tokyo.

Although there was no word as to the outcome of the operation, the hospital's initial report was that Miss Boyce's condition was grave.

S. F. Salesman Faces Two Narcotics Raps

A 30-year-old San Francisco pastry salesman, arrested in Colma last week on a charge of possessing almost $5,000 worth of narcotics, must first answer to an earlier charge of selling narcotics to a federal agent and then receive a double sentence.

This was the decision on David Edward Hutton by a judge in the Northern District Municipal Court in South San Francisco today.

Hutton was arrested February 21 by Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage and two officers from the San Mateo County District Attorney's office after searching his motel room and discovering the narcotics.

Savage later learned that Hutton was wanted in San Francisco by the federal authorities for failing to make a February 15 court appearance to answer to charges of selling narcotics. Hutton was arrested by a federal narcotics agent early in February in San Francisco when he attempted to sell the agent narcotics. He was released on bail.

Savage temporarily dropped his complaint so as to allow Hutton to answer to the U. S. Marshal's office on the first charge, and then signed a new complaint calling for a hold on Hutton. This means that Hutton must serve a jail sentence for possessing as well as attempting to sell.

Hutton was arrested February 21 at 2 p.m. at Harold's Motel in Colma, where he had been staying for several days, by Savage and Chief Inspector A. L. Lamport and Inspector Zach Whitten of the San Mateo County District Attorney's office.

Savage said that Hutton had been under observation for several days because of the latter's suspicion actions. Savage acting on a hunch, called for the services of Lamport and Whitten.

The trio went to the motel and found Hutton loading his car with baggage, apparently planning to check out. Savage said that it was apparent that Hutton was under the influence of something.

Savage said that Lamport asked Hutton if he was a narcotics user, and that Hutton denied ever using narcotics of any form. Hutton then gave the law men permission to search his room.

Upon searching the room and Hutton's belongings they found all the narcotics in two leather shaving bags. The items consisted of a large quantity of heroin, a package of marijuana, cigarette papers commonly used to make marijuana cigarettes, a number of hypodermic needles, packaging paper and creased cardboard used as a funnel to pour narcotics into capsules.

Also found in the bags were a number of rubber fingers, one of which contained the package of marijuana, rubber bands and several boxes of barbiturates.

Hutton was placed under arrest, and as he was being ushered into an awaiting police car, he broke away running across Junipero Serra boulevard, with Lamport and Savage in hot pursuit. Three shots were fired over Hutton's head, but Hutton continued running. He was cornered in a patch of tall weeds at Washington and Sullivan streets in Colma, booked at the Broadmoor Police Station, and later placed in custody at the San Mateo County Jail, without benefit of bail.

DC Man Arraigned On Marijuana Charge

An unemployed Daly City man was arraigned Tuesday in the Northern Judicial District Court in South San Francisco for possession of marijuana.

Roger S. Lavaysse, 24, was arrested Monday night at his home, 7 Parkview Ave., Daly City, by Sgt. C. L. Terry of Daly City police and Inspectors Jess Ojeda and Chuck Etter of the State Bureau of Narcotics.

Sgt. Terry reported that he accompanied Ojeda and Etter to the above address at about 9:45 p.m. Monday following a report that a narcotics peddler was operating there.

After a thorough search of the premises the officers uncovered two pair of work pants in the basement containing one marijuana cigarette and enough loose marijuana for a second cigarette wrapped in cellophane. The officers confronted Lavaysse with the evidence, but he denied owning it.

Also found were empty heroin "caps" which Lavaysse denied knowing anything about, despite evidence of a fresh puncture mark in his arm.

In the course of their search the officers also discovered an automobile engine hidden under the basement staircase. The engine, wrapped in a blanket and strapped to a hand trunk, was identified as a "Corvette" type.

Lavaysse said that the motor did not belong to him, that he was only storing it for a friend named Herman Pelz. He claimed he had had the motor for about two months. He said he originally had seen it in Pelz' basement when Pelz had asked him to store it for him. He said Pelz lived on Silver Ave., address unknown.

Also found in a box alongside the engine were the following items: one white tonneau cover, plastic; one black oil cloth slip case for above; one pushbutton auto radio; one four-speed gear box selector lever instruction plate with black rubber gromet; and a metal ash tray. All items were identified as being "Corvette" equipment.

Capt. Roy Beecher said that the car engine and equipment are being checked through the National Auto Theft Bureau.

Claims Against DC Handed To Attorney

Two claims against the city for personal and property damage were referred Monday night to City Attorney Paul Hupf for further action during the City Council meeting.

A claim of $15,000 based on a fall suffered on a public street has been filed by Miriam L. Berke.

Mrs. L. Stanghellini's claim against the city for property damage was also referred to the city attorney and the city's insurance carrier.

or a reopening of route negotiations. He claimed that it would weaken the council's attempt to make its point, that it would simply establish the status quo as it now stands.

"We were after what was safe before," he pointed out, "and now after discussing this with the Highway people further, we're after what is more safe."

St. Clair then emphasized that he too was against any reopening of the total issue and agreed then to add the following paragraph att he end of his resolution:

"It is not the intention of this council that this shall be construed, in any event, of reopening possible adoption of Allemany and Skyline Rd. as a freeway lateral to the south."

After a statement from Mrs. Michael Amorose, 110 Mirada, that the issue is "a tempest in a teapot" because the state "can do anything it pleases in the matter," and an argument from Councilman DeBernardi to the effect that "we don't know if others will coincide with our views and we should investigate these other areas before the resolution is passed," the question was asked on the motion and it was passed.

in the confines of Daly City that he was entitled to the same lower water rates enjoyed by his neighbors "just across the street."

Frank explained that not only is Hamilton not a city tax payer but added that the new rate boost was based on the increased cost of San Francisco water which often must be purchased to supply outside users.

Mayor Pacelli suggest that one solution to the problem might be the annexation of the area where Hamilton lives to Daly City.

Pacifica Woman To Be Honored By Nursery Staff

The Pacifica Nursery School will honor Anne Thompson this Saturday at a potluck dinner to be held at Vallemar Community Center. The Thompsons will be leaving soon for their new home near Santa Rosa in Sonoma County. She was also one of the original members of the school and held the office of first vice-president.

The school, located at 610 Edgemar avenue, Pacifica Manor, recently opened its Tuesday-Thursday program to children under three. Children from the age of 33 months will be admitted at the discretion of the director. Members will also consider the possibility of a five-day program for children from four to kindergarten age. Anyone interested in further information about the school or its programs can call Mrs. D. A. Lazzeri, EL 9-1471.

JESD BOARD

Saratoga school district.

The board appointed Edgar Tornell, Harding and Associates and Hale's Testing Laboratory as inspectors for structural and soils compaction work for the Ben Franklin additions.

Trustees took under study the state controller's report on $25,960 in site development work which may not qualify for state funds. Asst. Supt. David Shapiro said that of the total questioned by the state, only $2610 probably would have to come from district funds.

The annual audio-visual aid contract with the county requires a district expenditure of $3419.48.

Trustees also learned that the district will get $18,238 under provisions of the National Defense Education Act. This amount will provide 3115 volumes of science and arithmetic books, 218 science study prints, 175 science film strips, 26 arithmetic filmstrips, $2351 in science equipment, $4042 in arithmetic equipment, and 16 sets of darkening curtains.

The enrollment report, taken on January 27, showed a total of 8374 students and average daily attendance of 8068. This is an increase of 21 children for the month and 727 more students than the same period last year.

School Plans

Work is expected to begin this summer, Morgan said.

Jay Hartman, business representative of the State, County, and Municipal Employes Council, 59, American Federation of Labor, speaking on behalf of the custodians, gardeners, and maintenance men, urged the board consider adopting a policy of extending the career service increment of $20 a month at the end of each four year period following their having reached the maximum salary.

At present, they reach the maximum pay schedule with the increment after working for the district for four years.

The board heard two requests from clerical personnel of the district, asking for a seven-and-a-half hour work day instead of eight. They pointed out that many other school and civic institutions are doing this.

They also requested that the Friday following Thanksgiving be considered a paid holiday. The board took no decision on either matter.

The board approved a year's leave of absence to Rodney W. Crittenden, 31, a math teacher at Westmoor High School, who recently received a scholarship from the National Scence Foundation to study advanced mathematics. He will study at Stanford University.

THIRD GRADERS AT COLMA K-6 STUDY INDIANS

As the culmination of a Social Studies unit on Indians, Mrs. Barbara Busetto's third graders at Colma K-6 School invited their parents and other visitors to their classrooms.

The students originated the dance choreography and wrote the letters of invitation.

Areas of Indian life covered were geography, desert and sea life, clothing, homes, climate, soil, plant and animal life. The children learned much about the arts, crafts and culture of the Indians themselves.

The following program consisted of the Indian dance, Butterfly dance, Hopi Rain Song and Arise (Zuni sun song).

Many interesting reports were made by the children during their study. These included the pueblos, the kiva, the pottery and clay ovens. The Navajo Indians stories about them came to life through field trips taken by the class.

The following guests attended Indian ceremonial: Mrs. F. Martara, Mrs. M. Borlo, Mrs. A. French, Mrs. C. Gilmore, Mrs. N. Mini, Mrs. G. Giannini, Mrs. I. Chervellera, Mrs. J. Work Now Under Way For Charting Flight Paths Of Low-thrust Rockets

Space flights for years to come will be charted from Lockheed - developed "timetables," a Lockheed Missiles and Space Division scientist predicted today.

Alfred Block, Lockheed staff scientists revealed that he and his associates are working out an automatic timetable system for charting flight paths in space for low-thrust rockets.

The work is being done under contract to the propulsion laboratory of Wright Air Development Division, Air Research and Development Command.

The project will develop tables of information on speeds, heading payload flight times, booster rickets, and available low-thrust rocket engines. This data will be used along with a high speed computer to select the best time and route for making any space flight to the moon and near planets using low-thrust engines.

Lockheed's space division has already developed a widely used "timetable" for high - thrust chemical rocket vehicles. With the new system, it should be simple to decide between a low-thrust or high-thrust rocket for a particular space mission, Block stated.

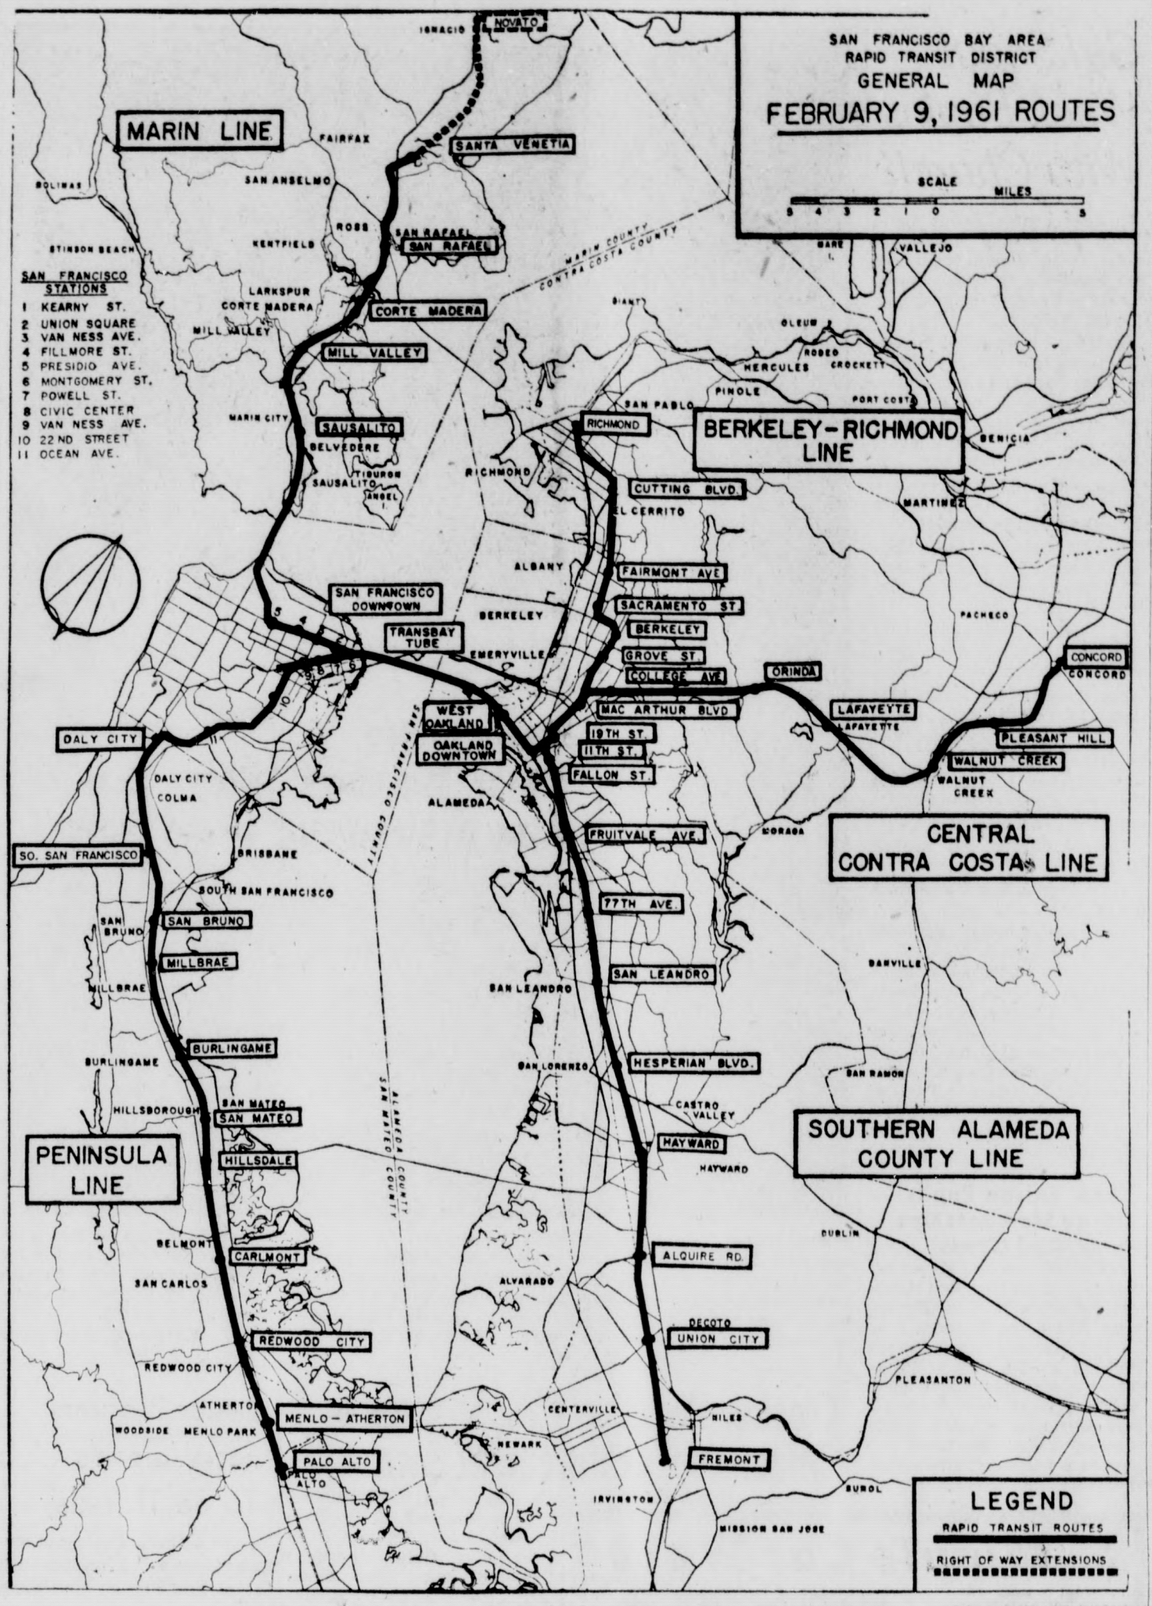
Various Lockheed specialists will coordinate their talents to work out the new tables. LMSD will use an IBM 7090, the most advanced high - speed digital computer available, to process this data.

Low-thrust rocket systems have many advantages where long flight times are not critical, Block said. Normally they supply the greatest amount of payload for total weight of the vehicle.

Low-thrust rocket engines in planning stages at Lockheed include plasma, and ionic systems. These rockets shoot out relatively small quantities of charged particles at very high velocities. They can operate continuously, in some cases for a year or longer.

Over these long firing times, they can build up to tremendous speeds, Block said. It is like holding down the accelerator for a year on a car with frictionless engine and wheel bearings.

"You just keep going faster and faster," he said.



Income Tax Deductions Allowed For Children Who Earn Wages

Parents may be entitled to claim their child as a dependent on their federal income tax returns even though the child had income of $600 or more during 1960 and is required to file his own tax return. Joseph M. Cullen, Director of Internal Revenue for the San Francisco District, issued this statement today as a reminder to taxpayers.

He explained:

"If you have furnished more than half of your child's total support, you may claim an exemption for the child regardless of the amount the child earned, providing the child had not reached his or her 19th birthday by January 1, 1961.

"If the child is 19 or over, you still may claim an exemption for him or her if the child was a full-time student during some part of five calendar months in 1960, and you furnished more than half of the child's total support.

"A full-time student is one who is enrolled for the number of hours which is considered to be full-time attendance at an educational institution which maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and has a body of students in attendance. Your child also will be considered a student if he or she is pursuing a full-time on-farm training course under the supervision of an agent of a State or political subdivision or of an educational institution.

"Your child is not considered to be a full-time student if he or she is employed full time during the day and attends night school, or if the child is taking a correspondence course or an employee training course."

Cullen emphasized these special rules only to a taxpayer's own child (including a legally adopted child, a child placed in his home by an authorized adoption agency, or a stepchild).

Cullen also reminded parents if their child is married and files a joint return with his or her spouse, no exemption may be claimed for that child even though all the other tests are met.

Taxpayers who have any questions on this subject may get Document No. 5107, "Filing Your Tax Return," or Document No. 5013, "Personal Exemptions and Dependents," by calling or writing their local office, Cullen said.

"If you have other questions about your Federal income tax return, telephone your nearest Internal Revenue Office," he advised.

One-Car Accidents Dominate List Of Highway Fatalities

More than half of the fatal accidents investigated by California Patrol officers during 1960 involved a single vehicle, Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said this week.

"Of 1977 fatal accidents in Patrol areas, 1111 were in the one-car category. The implication is obvious. Your safety as a driver rests squarely in your own hands. In a majority of last year's fatal accidents, the driver of the involved car had only himself to blame.

"The Patrol often has emphasized defensive driving as a protection against the unexpected actions of other drivers, but it is equally important to recognize the causes which contribute to accidents of individual cars," the commissioner said.

"Excessive speed, misjudgment or roadway conditions, defective equipment, deliberate violation of safety rules—these are among factors which can send your car into a fatal skid, into a bridge abutment, or into a rollover.

"The sensible application of safe driving practices is the surest defense against motor vehicle accidents of any type," Commissioner Crittenden concluded.

Senator Engle To Investigate "Aging" Problem

Senator Clair Engle (D-Calif.) has been named to new U. S. Senate Special Committee on Aging charged with intensifying investigation of the full range of progbems of older people.

"We are going to expand work on problems of America's 16 million citizens who are 65 years of age or older by concentrating effort in one Committee which will view these problems as a whole," Senator Engle said.

He explained that heretofore various committees of the Senate have handled different problems of older people on a piecemeal basis, without any overall attention to the relationship between one problem and another.

Senator Engle said, "The work of this new Committee will be of particular interest to California where so many of our older people reside."

"Our committee will focus on detailed surveys of health—including basic research on disabilities, general health and medical care—employment and pensions, housing, education and other areas," he said.

The nine-man Special Committee on Aging will continue and expand the scope of the work in which Senator Pat McNamara's Subcommittee on Problems of the Aged and Aging has been engaged for two years.

Senator McNamara has been named chairman of the new committee as well. It will provide a major resource for various standing committees which will continue to handle specific legislation.

Other members, in addition to Senator Engle, are Senators George Smathers, Harrison Williams Jr., Oren E. Long, Maurine Neuberger, Everett Dirksen, Barry Goldwater and Norris Cotton.

Facts About Income Tax

(A Public Service of the Society of California Accountants).

You can deduct the medical expenses you paid in 1960.

All drugs and medicines purchased by you in excess of 1% of your adjusted gross income are added to all other medical expenses paid by you and the amount by which this exceeds 3% of your adjusted gross income is deductible. If you are 65 or over and the expenses are for you or your spouse, the 3% provision does not apply to you.

If your mother or father, or your wife's mother or father were over 65 years old on or before January 1, 1961, and you have provided more than one-half the cost of their support, the 3% provision does not apply to medical expenses you paid for them.

The 3% provision would apply to medical expenses paid for others in your family, however.

The deduction is subject to limitations of $2,500 per exemption not counting the exemptions for old age and blindness, and subject to the following further limitations, unless you or your spouse are over 65 and disabled, then "D" applies:

A. $5,000 if the taxpayer is single and not a head of household or a qualifying widow or widower.

B. $5,000 if the taxpayer is married and files a separate return.

C. $10,000 if the taxpayer files a joint return, or is a head of a household or a qualifying widow or widower.

D. $15,000 if you or your spouse are over 65 years of age and disabled or $30,000 if you and your spouse are both over 65 years of age and are both disabled, but not more than $15,000 for either.

The shorter two-page Form 1040W provided for 1960 Federal income tax filing was explained today by Joseph M. Cullen, Director of Internal Revenue for the San Francisco District.

Cullen said the return can be used by any individual whose income consisted of salary and wages, regardless of amount, and not more than $200 income from interest and dividends.

Husband and wife whose combined income meets these tests may file a joint return on Form 1040W, he said.

He added:

"The two-page form is designed to allow taxpayers in any income category the benefits of (1) 'head of household' 'surviving spouse' status; (2) sick pay exclusion (3) dividends received credit; (4) estimated tax payment credit, and (5) itemizing deductions for contributions, interest payments, medical expenses, and the like.

Cullen said taxpayers whose income is under $10,000, consisting of salary or wages reported on Form W-2, and not more than $200 in dividends and interest should use the simple card Form 1040A.

He said taxpayer with dividend and interest income in excess of $200, or with any other income such as capital gains, retirement income, rents, royalties, business or professional income, etc., must still file on regular Form 1040.

Taxpayers who have any questions on this subject may get Document No. 5107, "Filing Your Tax Return," on Document 5013, "Personal Exemptions and Dependents," by calling or writing their local office, Cullen said. "If you have other questions about your Federal income tax return, telephone your nearest Interal Revenue Office," he advised.

Casualty losses of personal property are deductible.

The loss of your property by reason of flood, fire, storm, shipwreck, vandalism, and other casualty, or by theft, is deductible.

In the case of a residence, the damage to the residence, ornamantal fixtures, trees, shrubbery, lawns, tools, fences, equipment, or any property you owned is deductible. Of course, it is important to be able to prove you owned the property, and the amount of the loss.

Usually the loss is the difference between the fair market value of the property before the loss and the fair market value, if any, of the property after the loss.

The costs of repairing, replacing, or cleaning up after the casualty are not allowable deductions. However, if the repairs, replacements, or cleaning up do nothing more than restore the property to its condition immediately before the casualty, and no not add to the value, utility, or useful life of the property, such costs may be used as a measure of the decrease in value.

Any insurance recovery must be deducted from the amount of the loss before you make the deduction on your tax return.

Also, the loss can never exceed the cost or other basis of the property regardless of the fair market value at the time of loss.

If the loss is any amount greater than your income for 1960, you would carry the excess to back 1957 and file a claim for refund of the income tax paid for 1957. If the amount of the loss was such that your 1957 income did not absorb it all, then any unused loss could be carried forward to 1958 and 1959; then any excess could be carried forward for the next five years and applies against the income of those years.

South City Woman's Club Tours Florist Showrooms

Members of the Garden Section of the South Francisco Woman's Club recently joined a conducted tour through the California Street show rooms and nursery of San Francisco florists, Podesta and Baldocchi. The tour was sponsored by the YWCA and the Garden Club, both organizations from Daly City.

Three members of the florists personnel covered two phases of special interest. The first was a short discussion held about the multitude of house plants and their care followed by a question and answer period.

In the demonstration room six floral arrangements were shown step by step in their building. These included the old fashioned small nosegay and a larger arrangement, also basically a nosegay formation.

In one particularly delicate operation tulip petals were opened in reverse from the natural growing habit then used with dry plant material for an effective Oriental display.

An old wedding jar was selected for an arrangement of all purple and lavendar flowers while red antherium were used for a floral valentine. A large variety of flowers were adapted for many uses including the favorite roses, iris, carnations, snapdragons, gladiolas, and delphiniums.

Founders Day

Garden Village's Life PTA Honor To 'Molly' Phillips

At the Garden Village PTA Founders Day meeting, on Tuesday evening, February 21, Mrs. George Garcia, chairman of the life membership committee, introduced this year's recipient of the honor, Mrs. Lawrence Phillips.

In Mrs. Garcia's words, "Whenever there's a carnival or a hot dog sale at school you will always find her in the kitchen taking complete charge. Whenever anyone needs something done, this person's name immediately comes to mind, as I guess by now it has come to yours."

Mrs. Phillips, known better as "Molly," has lived in this community and participated in its activities for 13 years. In PTA she has held the offices of recording secretary and corresponding secretary, each for two years, and has acted as both hospitality and room mother chairman at the same time.

She has been a Girl Scout leader for five and a half years—three years as a Brownie leader and two and a half years as an intermediate Scout leader. For the past two years she has been intermediate leader for not just one but two Girl Scout troops. For a time she was also secretary for the Girl Scout Council.

The nominating committee was also selected. The Mesdames Martin Tonnissen, Edward de Martini, Del Guymon, Jack Pfeiffer and Larry Anderson will serve in this capacity. After the business of the meeting was concluded, the Garden Village Glee Club (fourth and fifth grade), led by Mrs. P. Hackett, provided the evening's entertainment.

A number of the unit's past presidents and honorary life members attended and were introduced, two traveling from as far as San Jose to be present. The Founders Day theme was carried out throughout the evening, from the presentation of appropriate emblems to the past presidents and honorary life members to the decoration of the cake, which was embellished with a replica of the PTA seal.

The "Cinderella" musical play, sponsored by the Jefferson Elementary School District co-ordinating council of PTA's had three full-house performances. Almost 1500 youngsters of the Daly City-Colma area attended and enjoyed the "live" play. The production here had a dual purpose. It enabled children to see a worthwhile play and at the same time earned money for the welfare fund of the district. This year's chairman was Mrs. Edward de Martini, recording secretary of Garden Village PTA.

FOUNDERS FESTIVITIES

Mesdames Cody, Wingate Awarded Life Memberships By PTA Of Colma Schools

The PTA Founders Day program at Colma K-6 and Intermediate schools featured the awarding of honorary life memberships to Mrs. Elvera Cody and Mrs. Vivian Wingate.

The well-attended session was highlighted by a skit entitled "Our Founders Wore Shawls," acted out by girls from Mrs. Malone's fourth grade class, and narrated by Mrs. Florence Murphy, and a "This Is Your PTA Honorary Life Membership Program" supervised by Don Lesher. Mrs. Henrietta Tomasello provided the musical background for the display of shawls through the years with PTA.

Attending were the following past life membership winners, who received corsages: Mrs. Arthur Huelse, Miss Hester Blaylock, Mrs. Frank Klassen, Mrs. Thomas Mullen, Mrs. Florence Swatsfager, Mrs. Silvia Silberstein, and Don Lesher received a boutonniere.

Principal Bernhard Gerdes reported to the unit that the showing of the play "Cinderella" raised $751.60 for the school district's student welfare fund. About $200 of this will be used for dental care.

President Edward Maita presided at the PTA meeting, and the affair was opened with Brownie Troop 316 leading the salute to the flag.

Members were reminded to save cotton and woolen discards for the rag drive, March 23. The unit's recent ice cream sale brought $30.80.

Crocker-Pershing PTA Announces Citizenship Achievement Awards

In order to provide children with experiences that help them to understand and accept themselves and others, develop skills of managing relations with others, learn about techniques and attitudes of leadership and cooperation, and to become increasingly better citizens of a society that depends upon democratic participation, Crocker school and General Pershing school have employed for many years a program of citizenship training.

This program starts with the child in the first grade and continues through the sixth grade. It has proven to be successful through the coordination activities of the teachers and parents.

Crocker-Pershing PTA has embraced this emphasis on citizenship training by purchasing citizenship certificates and gold-plated pins for deserving children.

The following children were honored for good citizenship for the two report periods in Mrs. Mildred Griswold's second grade class: Dan Browne, Gregory Hansen, Hilda Rendiero, Deborah Tyler, Raul Villarreal and Victoria Vitales.

The low-price compact that looks and drives like twice the price!

Valiant's the compact that rarely complains

(just like the Valiant owners you know!)

What makes Valiant, and the people who own it, so easy going?

For one thing, nagging annoyances that beset many other car bodies have been engineered out of Valiant's one-piece welded Unibody. And out where the road bumps are, Valiant's Torsion-Aire suspension stays smooth as milk 'n' honey.

Remember, too, Valiant's low prices begin $100 lower than last year. And because Valiant's built the way it is, it's bound to rate high at resale time.

For looks and liveliness, for long life and low cost, the top compact this year is Valiant. Come see the man who sells them!

Valiant!

Woodrow Wilson School Hears Malaya Teacher

On Friday, February 10, Woodrow Wilson school had an interesting visitor, Mr. Khoo Peng Kooi, from Malaya.

Mr. Kooi is a teacher at the Princess Elizabeth School for the blind at Malaya. He is on tour of the United States, visiting our schools, and observing the programs in which blind children are an integrated part of the school program. He has been enthusiastic about the schools in which he has visited.

In Malaya there are an estimated 1200 blind children. There are facilities to educate only about 100 children in residential schools. Mr. Kooi is hoping that a program for teaching the blind with the sighted children can be introduced in Malaya so that many more blind children may have the advantages of education.

March Of Dimes Contributions Hit Record High From W'lake Lounge

A new all time record high for contributions at one business firm to the annual "New March of Dimes" campaign in San Mateo County was set in the 1961 drive in January by the Westlake Lounge at 307 South Mayfair in Daly City, it was learned today.

The total figure on contributions by patrons at the popular Westlake Lounge was announced by Frank Davidson, proprietor, as $1,436.70.

This was turned over to the county chapter headquarters in the city of San Mateo at 3 West Thirty-seventh avenue there by L. J. Gazzano, of the Westlake branch of the Bank of America, serving as city chairman here for the 1961 drive.

Chairman James J. Kehoe, head of the county chapter of The National Foundation and director of the 1961 campaign, wrote Davidson expressing "a really heartfelt 'Thank you!' for the outstanding collections made there at the popular Westlake Lounge for the 1961 New March of Dimes campaign."

"None of us thought you could do it again," Chairman Kehoe wrote, "or even match the figure of $61,000-even, which you got in the 1960 drive a year ago . . . we were amazed when you not only equalled the 1960 figure but with a total of $1,436.70 had gone $336.70 over last year . . . and know you will pass on our appreciation to your loyal customers whose dimes and dollars made your receipts soar again."

Gazzano as Westlake city chairman reported a total of $1,672.79 had been donated in the coin collector units in places of business in Daly City in the 1961 "New March of Dimes" drive in January. Of this, $236.09 came from "all other business hours in Daly City, and $1,436.70 from the Westlake Lounge."

The 1961 drive officially closed January 31, but county chairman Kehoe added that "we will be glad to receive late donations at the chapter headquarters in San Mateo at any time, polio knowing no official deadline."

Parish Mission At Holy Angels Begins Sunday

A two-week Parish Mission is to be held at Holy Angels Church in Colma from Sunday, March 5 to Sunday, March 19, according to church officials.

The first week will be for the ladies, and the second for the men.

During the period of the mission the morning masses will be at 6:15, 8 and 9 a.m. Evening services will be conducted at 7:30 p.m., and will feature a series of sermons on the fundamental facts of Christianity and spiritual life. These services will also include the Rosary, traditional hymns and Benediction, church officials said.

Father John McGoldrick, a member of the Marist Fathers, will be preacher of the mission. He has conducted missions throughout the western United States and Hawaii.

San Quentin Chaplain Is Guest Speaker

There are three good reasons Mrs. Gilbert Bjorkquist, president of St. Cecilia's Mothers Club, is sure that all members will be attending the next monthly meeting, on Monday, March 6, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

First, Mrs. Robert Pinetti, program chairman, has asked the Rev. Father Edward J. Dingberg, chaplain at San Quentin prison, to be the guest speaker, and his topic will be "A Social Code for Parents." Secondly, the nominating committee is to be nominated and members will be able to submit their ballots for the new officers. If this isn't enough, curiosity will win out, since the results of the recent fashion show will be announced.

The Lenten Day of Recollection will be held on Wednesday, March 8, and reservations may be made at this meeting, or by contacting Mrs. Alfred Ahlquist, SE 1-6615, or Mrs. Gilbert Bjorkquist, OV 1-6284.

Coffee and cold drinks will be served following the meeting in the cafeteria.

San Mateo Scout Council Dinner Themed By County Merger Plans

North San Mateo County Girl Scout Council held a pot-luck dinner at the Mills High School cafeteria.

Theme for the evening was "Widening Circles," since the present council is merging with Central Council to form one grand San Mateo Girl Scout Council. Mrs. E. E. Gould will be the first executive director.

The purpose of the dinner was not only to hold a farewell for the old council, but to also "Honor the Man in Your Life," the husbands of Girl Scout leaders.

Two "Thanks Badges," the highest Girl Scout award, was made to Mrs. Bette Everhart, president of the Council, and to Mrs. Margaret McCoy, a past president.

Highlight of the evening was the reading of a poem by Mrs. Mary House of the Westlake division of Daly City. It touched upon every phase of Girl Scout activities and then paid special thanks to the patient husbands of leaders who encouraged them in their work. Token gifts of appreciation were handed out to the husbands.

Mrs. Helen Mori of Garden Village led the opening and closing ceremonies.

Senior Scouts who acted as Hostesses and served coffee during dinner were: Dale Heneise, Yvonne Mathieu, Barbara Robertson, and Sandy Sorenson. Miss Ann Mori, an assistant leader, also acted as hostess.

LINCOLN PTA FOUNDERS DAY AWARDS TOLD

Founders Day observances by the Abraham Lincoln School PTA brought honorary life membership awards to Mrs. Alice Kerekes, president of the unit, and Mrs. Bernhard Gerdes, teacher at the Daly City school.

A very informative account of the PTA's history was made by Mrs. Conte Gressani, Mrs. Bernard Lewis and Mrs. Marshall Hughes.

The Mothersingers chorus of South San Francisco provided the entertainment, singing four songs. Mrs. William Bemis, music chairman, also entertained with a piano selection.

In terms of gross income, California leads the nation in turkeys, sheep and eggs, and is third in milk and wool.

Helen Yeadon, Edward Headman Get PTA Honors

Two honorary life memberships, the Parent-Teacher Association's highest honor, were awarded by the Benjamin Franklin unit at the annual Founders Day meeting.

Helen Yeadon, president of the unit, was one of the recipients of the award.

Helen came to this area from Seattle where she served six years on the PTA executive board, three years working with Blue Birds, and seven years with Cub Scouts. She has worked two years for Benjamin Franklin PTA. Helen is also active in the Westlake Baptist Church congregation.

Olympia Tots Study Ways Of Aquatic Life

For the past two weeks Miss Sally Simon's kindergarten classes at Olympia have been studying aquatic life.

The boys and girls were particularly interested by the various methods the different fish and sea inhabitants use to protect themselves, Miss Simon said. They learned the importance of a hard shell to crabs and lobsters, how an octopus uses his eight tenacles, and the value of teeth to a shark.

The children were surprised to learn that a whale is not a fish but a mammal, just as humans are mammals. However, a whale cannot survive in very shallow water because its bone structure is not strong enough to support its great weight.

As a culmination of this study, the classes visited the Steinhart Aquarium. They were careful to find the gills on all the fish and see which fish had a dorsal fin.

Accompanying Miss Simon with her class were Mrs. Donald Cohen, Mrs. Eugene Cohen, Mrs. Harry Corzine, Mrs. W. C. Chalmers, Mrs. George Kartines, Mrs. Robert Klotz, Mrs. Louis Longueville, Mrs. Lewis Paulson, Mrs. Richard Schwartz, Mrs. Dudley Sullivan and Mrs. George Wanninger.

Is It Possible To Have A Lawn By Substitution?

You'll never convince a man who loves his lawn that there is any substitute for a good carpet of green. And, in truth, there really isn't. For the well-groomed lawn is more elegant underfoot, more soothing to the eye, and more tolerant to traffic than any ground cover yet invented. Even the dedicated greenskeeper will admit, however, that there are times and places to use a lawn substitute.

If you are plain unwilling to care for a lawn, for instance, then by all means plant a substitute—or hire a gardener. If you have an area too large for lawn, then try part lawn and part substitute. If you have a sloping area that is hard to keep watered, a parking strip that's a problem to mow, plant a substitute. You'll usually be ahead of the game.

The California Association of Nurserymen tells us that the first essential to planting either a lawn or its stand-in is a good seedbed or planting bed. The ground should be well worked over, and for seed it should be raked smooth and free of clods. Ground covers may be planted with less preparation; but thorough cultivation will assure a faster start in life.

The single most important step to establishing a fine carpet of grass is to work humus galore into the planting area. Peat moss and steer manure are both excellent humus builders. If you rent power tiller, be sure to use it for working in humus before returning it. Once the bed is prepared, and the lawn is planted, be sure it never dries out while it is getting started. A top layer of peat or manure helps to conserve moisture.

Vista Mar Students Learn About Fish

Mrs. Shepard's first grade at Vista Mar School has been engaged in a study on fish. Problem solving in terms of children listing questions for which they wanted answers, doing research at their reading level through books and verbal communication with friends and neighbors who had aquariums were engaged in by various students.

Correlated with this research were art and language activities. Art work included underwater scenes and stuffed fish which the children constructed to be used as mobiles for the classrooms environment. To culminate the unit an educational tour to the Steinhart Aquarium in Golden Gate Park has been scheduled.

Temple Judea Celebrates Holiday Of Purim This Friday Evening

A family worship service celebrating the holiday of Purim will take place Friday evening, March 3, at 8:15 p.m. at the Westlake Community Baptist Church, Southgate avenue and Elmwood Drive, Daly City.

The holiday of Purim is a rereading and interpretation of the biblical book of Esther in which the universal symbol of prejudice, (named Haman) in the Book of Esther attempts negating the democratic principles of respect for each other's liberties and civil rights. The Book of Esther in the Bible, though ancient, is also modern in that universally men such as Haman, with perhaps other means and under various guises have attempted to do the same. In our own day, names such as Hitler and Stalin, are synonymous with that of Haman.

Because of the triumph of liberty over tyranny, Jews will celebrate by reading the Book of Esther, eating the traditional "Hamantasch," (a 3-cornered filled tart), and the children will dress in various biblical costumes.

The Sisterhood of Temple Judea will hold their annual cheerful card party at the Fox Hostess House, 3255 Balboa street, on Monday March 6, 12 noon.

Commencing March 7, 8 p.m., Rabbi Shapiro will conduct an Adult Education Series for a period of 5 consecutive Tuesday evenings on the subject of God, Immortality, Purpose of Life, Existence, and Prayer. Registration is open to members of the Congregation only.

Arbor Day Tuesday Offers Good Excuse To Plant That Tree

If anyone needs an excuse to plant a tree, he'll find it this week on his calendar. March 7 is the birthday of California's famed horticulturist, Luther Burbank, and since 1909, the state has celebrated it as Arbor Day.

Traditionally, Arbor Day has been observed by school children who study about conservation and occasionally plant trees. Many weathered old trees stand today as a living reminder of some class project on some long-gone Arbor Day.

The California Association of Nurserymen recently suggested that Arbor Day today can also serve as an impetus to beautify our cities. What better reason for getting together with neighbors to plan a street planting, or for organizing support of a city project to plant trees in the business district? If such a project is lacking, propose it yourself as a club or association project.

Trees—in the garden, along the street, in city squares and parks—provide a background of serenity to the fast pace of modern living They are enduring and reassuring, according to the association.

The association states that since a tree's performance depends largely on the start it gets in life, the gardener should take extra care in planting one. Whether it's a towering shade tree or a flowering fruit tree, yau should provide an adequate planting hole.

One of C.A.M. nurserymen offers this suggestion in determining the proper size of a planting hole. He says to dig one that seems plenty big enough, then make it bigger.

This is not to say that it takes a potential swimming pool to plant a tree, but the hole should be a foot deeper than the root ball and a foot wider all around. Mix the earth you've taken out with steer manure before filling it back in. Make a basin and fill it first thing. Provide plenty of water during the first year.

FULL SCALE model of America's first earth satellite created much interest and discussion at Jefferson Elementary School when it was put on special display for two week by the Army. Closely scrutinizing the satellite (from left): Pauline Iwahashi, Bob Blake, Mike Guisti and Phyllis Oliva, who with other sixth graders had earlier been taken on a study trip to the Presidio Nike installation.

TV and Radio

By MONA BAKER

Instead of "going to the dogs" as some TV critics have claimed, television is now going to the horses—well, not really, but one of television's newest comedy programs "Mister Ed" (KRON-TV, Sun., 6:30 p.m.) does feature a talking horse. Up from Hollywood to chat with the Bay Area press was the show's cast (everyone except the horse) including co-stars Alan Young and Connie Hines, Larry Keating and Edna Skinner.

The entire cast's background adds up to many and impressive years in show business with credits for the stage, movies and television. Alan Young has starred in many movies, including "Chicken Every Sunday," and "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College." He was awarded a TV Emmy for his "Alan Young Show." His co-star, lovely Connie Hines has played roles in "Whirlybirds," The Untouchables," and Perry Mason." Larry Keating, whose background includes Broadway roles as well as radio and television, was on "This Is Your FBI" for seven years, followed by six years in the role of Harry Morton on the Burns and Allen show. Edna Skinner has appeared on the stage, in many movies, and has played parts in over 48 TV films, including "Private Secretary," "Gildersleeve," and the "Topper" series.

With production and station time costs totalling $3,000,000, "Mister Ed" is one of the most expensive syndicated film programs in television. In addition to San Francisco, the show will be seen in 115 cities throughout the United States.

Good news from KTVU is that beginning this week the outstanding series, "Play of the Week," will be repeated on Saturday evenings at 9 p.m. So with a choice of two days in the week (Wednesday and Saturday) you shouldn't have to miss any of the shows which are scheduled for weekly viewing until June when the current season ends. Also welcome news from Channel 2 is the announcement that the hour-long musical series, "Great Music From Chicago," will premiere on March 20 at 9 p.m. with a pops concert by the Chicago Symphony under the baton of Arthur Fiedler. The weekly programs will vary from symphony and light opera to jazz.

At the March 1 meeting of the Holy Angels Women's Guild, plans for the annual rummage sale were discussed. A pre-sale will be held (open to the public) on March 18 in the parish hall, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The articles on sale will be all new items donated by San Francisco, Westlake and Daly City merchants. This will be a good opportunity to pick up many household items and bric-a-brac at tremendous savings.

The main sale will be held on March 22 at Larkin Hall, Larkin and Grace streets, San Francisco, starting at 9:30 a.m. The chairman, Mrs. S. Lochie, promises a large selection of family apparel, jewelry, books, furniture, and many other useable items. Proceeds from this sale will be used for the scholarship fund of Holy Angels.

Under old business, Mrs. T. with the show and said, "if it had not been for their efforts it woul not have been so successful."

Before adjourning the meeting, Mrs. Geo. Ellis, president of the Guild, commented on the many original aprons made and worn by the members to the meeting. These aprons were then given to Mrs. A. Cain, chairman of the apron booth for the parish Fall Festival. They will be among various types of aprons available in this booth.

Bay Area Red Cross Chapters Launch March Membership Drive

The nine Red Cross chapters of the Bay Area today, March 1, 1961, launched the biggest and most crucial March membership drive in nine years wit a goal of $431,000.

Golden Gate Chapter goal is $235,469 with $176,602 of that amount to be raised in San Francisco and the remainder in San Mateo County, according to Kenneth Gould, March Membership chairman.

The goal represents the amount of difference between that raised for Red Cross by United Crusade and actual operating needs for the year 1961.

Gould said that if the United Crusade had reached its goal of $11,250,000, Red Cross would then have conducted only its traditionally modest March Membership campaign.

Harry R. Long, president of the United Bay Area Crusade said that the nine Red Cross chapters' share of the recently completed Crusade compaign will fall 19 per cent short of the amount requested by the Red Cross.

"We are looking forward to the day when Crusade will receive the full support it deserves," Gould stated. "But until that happy day we must depend on the support of our friends."

The Red Cross Drive will also be aimed at the estimated 35 per cent of Bay Area residents who made no 1960 gifts to the United Crusade.

Charles W. Fay, Golden Gate chairman, pointed out that through its achievements in the relief of suffering from disasters, accidents, and illness, the Red Cross touches the lives of more Americans than does any other agency outside the Federal government.

"Although Red Cross is chartered by the Federal government and has the President of the United States as its Honorary Chairman, it gets no government funds, receiving 100 per cent of its support from its members," Fay stated.

In the Bay Area there are over 6,000 volunteers who do the many community services of the Red Cross. In Red Cross there is an average of 155 volunteers for every person on the payroll.

Among the accomplishments of Red Cross in San Francisco last year was the giving of 32,000 needed rides to clients of 70 United Crusade agencies, the training of over 19,000 in first aid, home nursing, and mother and baby care, giving aid to 5,000 members of the military and their families, the rolling of a million miles of bandages for military hospitals, and the rendering of assistance to victims of 96 fires.

In addition, the local Red Cross was a part of the great world-wide Red Cross operation that gave aid in such disasters as the Congolese famine; the 10,000 paralyzed by tainted cooking oil in Morocco; the 275,000 Algerian refugees; the earthquake in Chile; the floods in India, Pakistan and the Philippines.

On Friday evening the entire service will be didicated to Purim. Rabbi Shore will be assisted by several teenagers, among them Anita Hoffman, Laura Kimbral, Robert Rubin, Michael Hartman and Irvin Shore.

STATE Income TAX Question BOX

Question: Who is required to file a State Personal income tax return?

Answer: Different laws apply to different taxpayers, depending upon marital status, according to State Controller Alan Cranston, Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board.

If you are a single person, you are required to file a State return if your net income is $1,500 or more. But if your gross income is $5,000 or more, you must file a return regardless of the amount of your net income.

If you are married, you are required to file a State return if your net income, plus the net income of your spouse, equals $3,000 or more. But if your gross income, plus the gross income of your spouse, totals $5,000 or more, you must file a return regardless of the amount of your net income.

Whether you are single or married depends upon your status on the last day of the taxable year. Beware of these two problem areas:

—An interlocutory decree of divorce does not return a person to a single status. That person must file as a married person until the final divorce decree is obtained.

—The marital status of a taxpayer or his spouse who has died during the taxable year is determined as the date of death.

'Your Public Health Nurse' Film To Be Shown To Senior Citizens

All Westlake residents over 50 years of age are asked to make a special note of Wednesday, March 15, on which date the premiere showing of "Your Public Health Nurse and You" will take place as the feature of the "Over 50" Senior Citizens Club, which meets every Wednesday at Westlake Community Baptist Church.

Mrs. Inga Lingeman, supervising public health nurse of the North County Nursing Office of the Combined Public Health Nursing Services and Visiting Nurses Association of San Mateo County, will present the program. This is the first public showing to be scheduled for these informative pictures.

Anyone interested in the health and nursing services offered by the county is invited to attend. Mrs. Lingeman will speak briefly on nursing and home care and answer questions concerning health problems and the nursing services and health facilities available in San Mateo County.

Mrs. Lingeman will also distribute pamphlets concerning subjects dealing with the health problems of aging, retirement, and low cost meals and cooking for one or two persons.

The church is located one block west of the new Daly City library on Southgate avenue at the corner of Elmwood drive. Everyone is welcome to attend. The film program is scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Jeff Class Reunion Draws Crowd Of 150

"Why wait a year! Let's have another one next Saturday night!"

This burst of enthusiasm from one of the approximately 150 guests attending, summed up the success of the first reunion of Jefferson High School's "Class of '38" held last Saturday night at the Greenhills Country Club.

Of the 150 present, more than 40 of them were members of the original class which numbered 98, according to Elio A. Fontana, members and former student body president.

"The idea for a reunion started as a casual suggestion," Fontana said. "But before we got through we not only had a country club full of people but phone calls from all over the country from class members who wanted to but could not make it. Even heard from Grant Smith who's a colonel now and living in New York."

Winola Ford, senior class president in 1938 was on hand for the affair, as were reunion committee members Alice Kerekes, Angelina Brugioni, Norma Baptista, Arnold Penella and Fontana.

It hasn't been decided yet whether a second reunion will be held in one or two years, Fontana said, "But you can be sure we're hardly up to another one this Saturday night," he added.

Simple Hints Aid Gardeners In Planting

Here's a few helpful hints offered by the California Association of Nurserymen to you gardeners with spring flowering problems:

1. Prune spring flowering deciduous shrubs after they finish blooming—or while they are blooming if you want the color in your home.
2. Watch new growth on roses for signs of aphis. For best control, start spraying as soon as new growth appears.
3. Start a privet hedge this month. It will grow by leaps and bounds if you keep it watered when the rains have gone.
4. Perennials that weren't divided last fall can still be divided now.
5. Use bait to stop the new crop of snails and slugs before it increases any further.

Many Californians are alive today because of Red Cross training in first aid, swimming, lifesaving and home nursing techniques.

Warriors Whip OLM Five, 24-19, To Keep Spotless Loop Lead

The Police Athletic League Warriors ran their unbeaten record to 6-0 last Saturday as they defeated the Our Lady of Mercy Gaels, 24-19, in sixth grade division of Daly City's boys' basketball leagues.

John Gray and Keith Stoller paced the Warriors, while Ed Coghlan of the Gaels had 9 points.

The Our Lady of Mercy Dons moved to second place in the sixth grade division by beating OLPH, 29-12.

In the seventh grade league, the BYA Darts and the PAL Bobcats clash this Saturday for the title. The Darts last week defeated the Bobcats, 27-22. Hood, Shackleford, Tracy, Heick and Wilcox lead the Darts. Hernan and Starkovich are top gunners for the PAL squad.

Our Lady of Mercy took third place in the seventh grade loop by routing the Daly City Foghorns, 30-17. The BYA Pistons left the cellar via their 23-21 verdict over OLPH.

Our Lady of Mercy remained tops in the eighth grade division with a 48-29 win over OLPH. Ken Torre of OLM bucketed 21 points.

Ben Franklin and the Flying Goose Blues are tied for second place. Franklin won via a forfeit last Saturday, and the Flying Goose Blues defeated the Flying Goose Whites, 26-19. Both second place teams have 5-1 records. In the other eighth grade game New Pisa downed the winless BYA Patriots, 48-24.

DARTS TOPPLE BOBCATS FOR CITY TITLE

Basketball fans saw the crowning of another champion this week as the BYA Darts took the measure of the PAL Bobcats in the 1961 Boys Basketball Legue sponsored by the Department of Recreation.

The Darts outlasted the Bobcats in a nip and tuck game 30-25. The break of the game came when high scoring Billy Hernan of the Bobcats was injured in a scramble for the ball and had to leave the game. From that point the Darts wore the Seventh Grade Division crown. PAL Bobcats took second place and OLM third.

Sixth grade action consisted of a play-off game for second place between the BYA Tigers and the OLM Dons. Mike Miller and his fast breaking teammates won out over an undermanned OLM Don team, 29-25. Final standings find PAL Warriors in first place with a perfect record; BYA Tigers won second place and OLM Dons third.

OLM and the Flying Goose Blues provided the game of the day in the Eighth Grade Division. After trailing most of the game a fighting OLM team came from behind to edge out the Blues, 26-25. This win keeps OLM in the top spot and knocks the Blues to third place. Ben Franklin held on to second place by swamping the BYA Patriots, 54-14. In other games, New Pisa downed OUPH, 44-28, and Parkmerced forfeited to the PAL Celtics.

It's SPARE TIME at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

"S" stands for Sunday-Satellites-Scotch-Sweepers and Surprise — that's the schedule for next Sunday at 10 p.m. when the newest weekly feature starts in Westlake. With a Scotch Doubles type of competition, partners bowl alternately —if the first bowler leaves any pins, his or her partner has the task of converting them. Our two "Smiling Satellites," Doris Cunningham and Pat Garcia, of the Holy Angels Mothers' Guild — A-1 Nursery League, held a sneak prevue when they introduced their "leader" to fellow bowlers.

Maxine Sweat and Lorraine Allen, of the YWCA League, believe in "togetherness." Converting the very difficult 5-10 spare is no easy matter, so what do these girls do? They both merely converted it — in the same game.

Joe Marasco, Mike Lanier and John Zamrow led our Juniors to a definite victory over the Junior team from Nave Lanes in Marin County. Joe was the top man (boy?) with a 233 game and a 613 series.

The girls in the Thursday afternoon Westlake Keglerettes League had a "split picnic" last week. Among the conversions were the 3-10 by Virginia Styckett, the 5-10 by Mary Wright, the 3-7-10 by Lee Johnson, and both the 5-7 and 4-7-9 by Westlake Ladies' Champion Jackie Koesler.

Junior Director Bob Sexton reports that there will be 153 entires from Westlake in the Northern California Junior Championship at Monterey, April 30.

And speaking of entires — Primo Liberatore already has well over 100 team entires for the Bowling Proprietors of America Team Handicap Tournament which started last Monday and runs until March 26. The San Francisco - Peninsula Sectionals for one of each five teams entered will be held at Westlake Bowl on April 15-16.

In the Junior competition for most 200 games, Bob Cowan leads with 8 while Jim Fisher is pressing him with 6.

Those coveted 200 games are becoming more and more common. Two more bowlers hit the magic circle for the first time last week—Viv Rogers in the Monday Noon Travel League and George Dieterle of the Skyliners.

The second February Powder Puff Derby found first time winner Midge Burns taking first place cash prize and trophy with a 502 series, plus a 152 pin handicap. Helen Juiffre took the high scratch game prize with 195, while Betty Crowley shot 74 pins over her average to take home the prize for that category. Next Monday at 1:15 p.m. is the date for the first March Powder Puff Derby for the lady bowlers.

Secretary Ted Wittke of the San Francisco Bowling Association has published the schedule for the 26th Annual City Tournament. Forty-two teams from Westlake will be shooting for the titles. The schedules for the team doubles and singles events are posted on the bulletin board.

Again last Saturday night, Primo's Travelers gave Marina Bowl that "Westlake look' as they took over all the lanes to help the Guardsmen in their worthy work of sending needy boys to camp.

The first annual Westlake Handicap Doubles far exceeded expectations in the number of entries, which means that the prizes were increased both in number and in amount. Jock McNelly moved into the lead in the high game department as he shot a sparkling 266 game last week.

Many new bowlers of the area reported for the Beginners Clinic held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. In fact, the response was so enthusiastic that it will become a weekly feature, enabling the many interested persons in the area to get started on the right foot in learning the fundamentals of bowling. Rick Dreier and Martha Lauer report that an excellent bowling movie is part of the program.

It's News To Vets

Q—In a medical emergency, how should one go about getting a veteran admitted to a nearby VA hospital and getting an ambulance to take him to the hospital at Government expense.

A—The veteran's private physician should telephone the hospital and discuss the veteran's condition with the admitting physician of the hospital.

Q—I am the unremarried widow of a World War II veteran who never used his home loan guaranty benefits. Is it true, as I've been told, that I may be eligible to apply for VA guaranty on a home loan?

A—An unremarried widow of a World War II or Korean Conflict veteran is eligible for this benefit only if her husband died in service, or following separation from service, he died of a service-connected disability.

Q—I am a Korean veteran and have recently become unemployed. Am I still eligible for unemployment compensation, and if so, how much?

A—States vary on the rate of payment and on the length of time, following discharge from service, that military service will be included in the "base period" in establishing eligibility. Contact your nearest State Employment Service office. Take along your separation papers, Social Security card and a record of employment, both before and after military service.

Q—Can I be admitted to a VA domiciliary on short notice?

A—The veteran should not go to a VA domiciliary expecting to be admitted. The veteran should not be sent or taken to a domociliary until prior approval for his admission has been received.

Daly City Enters AAA Nationwide Safety Contest

A complete report on Daly City's pedestrian accidents and accident prevention program has been forwarded to the California State Automobile Association in Sacramento for judging in the AAA's annual nationwide Pedestrian Protection Appraisal by Police Sgt. Henry Sundermann of the local police department.

The city's pedestrian safety program will be evaluated along with those of other cities of the same population group by a board of judges comprised of several prominent men in the field of traffic safety. They will review all reports and announce the winners later in the year.

In 1960, there were no pedestrian fatalities here. Sgt. Sundermann, commenting on the causes of pedestrian accidents, said that extensive studies by the AAA Foundation on Traffic Safety shows that pedestrians endanger themselves.

He pinpointed his statement by mentioning several examples of this, such as crossing the street between parked cars, crossing against the light, crossing between intersections, and walking in the roadway with the traffic rather than against it.

Last year there were 44 states and 1,738 cities that took part in last year's evaluation.

The 18-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Jefferson High School.
